CONGRATULATIONS

MCMLXIV

Memorial High School
Middleborough

BUCK VILLAGE LIBRARY
MIDDLEBOROUGH, MASS.

The class of 1964 can find no person more worthy of special mention than Mrs. Marion Whipple. As the advisor of Silver "M" she has encouraged the recognition of character and leadership in school affairs. As co-sponsor of the Humanities-Science classes she has brought to MHS a higher level of achievement and opportunity. Above all else, however, she has given us a deeper understanding of all people, past and present, through her constant efforts in many enjoyable history classes.

Congratulations to the Class of 1964. After twelve years of public education, you have attained one of your most important objectives. Although for many of you this is the terminal point of your education, for others, this is merely a stepping stone to "horizons unlimited." Whether your future plans include work, marriage, or further education, be sure that your goals are well defined. Remember that although problems arise and temporarily obscure these goals, as clouds often obscure the heavens, knowing your direction and your goal will enable you to chart a steady course in the future.

Charles L. Manos, Principal

Members of the Class of 1964:
Clouds are but conjectural shapes, hurrying across the sky in unending procession, from day to day. Yet God must have had a purpose for man in their creation. Perhaps they are to remind him that time is fleeting. Available time is here and now. For, while you may anticipate the future, you can never regain the past. These past twelve years have been spent in anticipation of your imminent commencement. Time for you, from now on, is a precious commodity. Spend it wisely in gaining vocation, esteem, fortune and friends. Anticipate the ultimate purpose of your existence and proceed in the fleeting moments to achieve this goal.

My sincere best wishes to each of you,

Joseph L. King,
Vice Principal

Every high school graduate enters this exciting period of life looking forward to success. No amount of preparation nor planning can guarantee it; one must constantly work for it.

As we look at the world about us, as we see man penetrating outer space, and as we observe his determination to learn the secrets of the universe, we know the future is beyond the clouds. It is not for those afraid to face it and work for it; it is not for timid men without vision.

May you, the Class of 1964, have the courage, the persistence, and the wisdom to look beyond the clouds and bring your expectations into reality.

Sincerely,

Stanley Kruszyna,
Superintendent of Schools

Editors' Note

We the class of 1964 have now traversed a very short distance in our life's journey. Though the distance covered in the past four years has come and gone swiftly, the imprint on each and every personality will certainly reach far into the future. In days of old there were many types of trials: trial by fire, trial by water. We have passed through four years of trial by error. As a class we have decided the importance of trial in our motto: Through trial to triumph!

Clouds do many things. They mirror our imagination. They project our thoughts. They obscure our futures. An important characteristic of clouds is that they are soft and easily shaped. At one moment a cloud is a tree basking in summer sun. At another moment, it is a hunter in pursuit of the rainbow's end. In a third, it is a white rose gracing the heavens with delicacy.

And so in 1960 another freshman class came to Memorial High School. Like the clouds our minds were nebulous, uncertain, and unsure. But four years have seen our thoughts assuming form. Like the clouds, too, we have been shaped by the influence of our surroundings. Our teachers, our friends, and our parents have helped to mold our attitudes and our ambitions. We stand not like the haze which obscures the horizon but rather like "fair weather clouds" ready for the enterprise of the day.

When we started in our first year at M.H.S. we were shy. Evidently this reticent air hung over our athletic teams, because both in basketball and football the Class of 1964 had losing seasons. Cheerleaders were Cindy Pierce, Linda Zion, Jan Lewis, Sue Tremml, Sue Hockwald, Margaret Perham and Pat McAulay. Class officers were Stuart McLean, President; Edward Mulkern, Vice-President; Jan Lewis, Secretary; and Margaret Chase, Treasurer. Ed Mulkern and Sue Hockwald were chosen for Silver "M." Our first year ended quickly.

As we entered our second year we were eager. "This zealous determination to bring honor to our class is perhaps . . ." most apparent in the Sophomore Christmas Dance. With the unceasing work of the class, this dance was the zenith of the 1961-62 school year. The dance was headed by Dennis King, Class President. He was assisted by Ken Chapman, Sue Donner and Margaret Chase, the remaining class officers. Class Council members also played a major role in the success of this dance. In our sophomore year we also added Ken Chapman and Judy Bailey to the Silver "M" roster.

As we entered our third year we were hopeful. It was in this year that most of us began to think of our futures. Some studied college catalogues; some thought of employment; some procrastinated. In this academic year we undertook our biggest business venture thus far: the Junior Prom. And, like the Christmas Dance, the Prom was a total success. Committees, the Class Council, and officers all joined to make "Misty" the most profitable prom in many years. The reins of management were in the hands of Dennis King, President; Linda McNeil, Vice-President; Beverly Johnson, Secretary, and Jean Cushing, Treasurer. Jan Lewis and Dennis King were elected to Silver "M." Two more matters of note were the induction of seventeen members of our class into National Honor, and the success of Ted Eayrs' Science Project on the History of Middleboro. Ted represented Middleboro in every important fair including the New England Regional in Darham, New Hampshire.

As we entered our fourth year we were resolute. We were determined to make every moment of work and play left to us the best possible. Ed Mulkern was Class President; Sue Donner, Vice-President; Linda McNeil, Secretary; and Beverly Johnson, Treasurer. Kathy Dunn and Cindy Pierce were elected to Silver "M." John Braga and Ed Mulkern were co-captains of the most successful football season. Cindy Pierce was elected football queen. Ken Chapman, as president of the Student Council, did a commendable job in leading the student body. Cindy Pierce, Pat MacAulay, Penny Borsari, and Linda Zion cheered the teams to victory as the representatives of our class in the Cheerleaders. Kathy Dunn as editor, with Jan Lewis, Sue Tremml, and Martha Ferraguto assisting has created our yearbook.

As we enter our last days at Memorial High, we can see an horizon clouded with fame and obscurity, a path, covered with velvet and calico, a door, hidden by nothing and everything.

Just as our past four years have been what we have chosen to make of them, so the sands of our future will bear what we choose to write on them.

National Honor Society

The above members of the Anchrier Chapter of the National Honor Society were inducted in 1963. Membership in this chapter is based on scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The main objectives of the National Honor Society are to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to promote worthy leadership, to stimulate a desire for service, and to encourage the development of good character. The society has established fine standing committees to carry on its business. These committees are Ways and Means, Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character. All active members of the Society are members of a committee. This year the Society is in charge of the Regional National Honor Conference.

Silver "M"

The Silver "M" Society was established to recognize students with outstanding citizenship. Election to membership is based on dependability, honesty, and fairness, cooperation, consideration for others, courage to stand for high ideals, and emulation of the qualities which enable people to live together well.

Basically the members of the society are chosen by their fellow classmates. In December the seniors, juniors, and sophomores hold their respective primary elections; and in April the freshmen hold theirs. In these elections each class nominates four to six candidates. For the freshmen and sophomores, a final selection is later made by regular ballot. On the other hand, the final selection of the two juniors and seniors is made by the members of their own classes within the society itself. In addition the Student Council elects four more students to receive the award. Finally, at the end of the academic year, the senior members of the society may add any senior who is elected unanimously by secret ballot.

The responsibility for maintaining the standards of the group rests with the members of the society. Delinquent members may be warned, suspended, or even expelled by a majority vote of the group. At a later time this member may be re-elected to the society if he has shown himself to once more deserve the honor.

The business affairs of the society are handled by its four elected officers: the president, vice-president, the secretary, and the treasurer.

Student Council

Girls' League is an organization run strictly by and for the girls of Memorial High School. Each year the girls sponsor a dance and a mother and daughter party. Interesting guest speakers address the girls' several mass meetings. The actual work of the League falls to the two representatives chosen at the beginning of the school year from each homeroom. An annual outing held in June and a Christmas play complete the list of the organization's activities. This year the play was presented under the direction of Mrs. Janet Batchelder. The cast included Theresa Treanni, Janet DeArruda, Michelle Chartier, Paula Shaw, Charlene Sprayberry, Judy Wiksten, and June Stuart.

Newswriters' Club

The Newswriters' Club, formerly under the direction of Miss MacDonald and now of Mrs. Reilly, publishes a weekly column of school events in the Middleboro Gazette. The club gives students interested in reporting a chance to express themselves.

Assignments are given to the reporters by the editor, Linda McNeil, who is aided by the assistant editor, Ann Farley. The reports are proofread by the advisor and then typed. The librarian, Patricia Dunbar, keeps a scrapbook full of the finished reports. All these duties are carried on diligently by the club.

Business Education Office

The Business Education Office at M.H.S. is operated by the students and supervised by Mrs. Moore. It serves a dual purpose: service and training. The service rendered by the girls includes: handling of club money, delivery of supplies, and special office work for the entire school. The second purpose is to train each girl in the general office practices.

Bowling Club

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses is an organization for any girl with inclinations towards the field of medicine. In striving to nourish this interest, the club sponsors special group trips to hospitals around the Middleboro area bringing each girl in contact with her possible career. Guest speakers give each member valuable knowledge. Although every member does not eventually seek a nursing career after high school, each does receive an invaluable insight into an honorable profession.

Humanities-Science Class

This year the field of science was added to the original Humanities Class to greatly broaden the scope of the program. The Humanities-Science Class, open to any senior having honor grades, enjoyed an inspiring series of lectures, ranging from American democracy through Grand Opera to British political history in the realm of humanities and from biology to anthropology in the field of science. This class has also been of great benefit to the community, for the public is invited to attend every third meeting of the group. We are deeply grateful to Mrs. Whipple and to Miss Dupee for originating this memorable experience in learning.

French Club

The Dance Band, a group of the most talented musicians in Memorial High, is chosen from the members of the Symphonic Band by Mr. Nelson. The instrumentation is standard for dance bands, with four trumpets, four trombones, five saxophones, piano, string bass, tuba, guitar, and percussion.

The Dance Band was founded by Mr. Luther Churchill, Sr. in 1958. At their Thursday evening meetings the seventeen members learn much about American dance band history and style both by playing the music and listening to recordings of the great bands.

In 1962 the Dance Band won first prize in a local talent show, and as a result of this, appeared on television in a Community Auditions Show. The group participates in many local events, the most notable being an annual trip to the Veterans' Hospital in Brockton to supply music for the Christmas party. The most important school function of the Dance Band is to provide music and entertainment at dances and concerts.
